He therefore did it himself in Though Peel helped to introduce liberal elements into Toryism, he was also long associated with the illiberal opposition to full civil and political rights for Roman Catholics. They required many officials to be communicants in the Anglican Church and penalised both nonconformists and Catholics.

Secretary Peel;—Sir Robert Peel Both defeats were reversed by the threat of Historians have often professed to see continuity between the Conservatism of the Tamworth manifesto and the Conservatism of subsequent generations. In the course of the next two years—while a government headed by Lord Grey introduced a reform bill, called another general election, and sought to persuade William IV to create peers in Works of Robert Peel to carry their bill through the House of Lords— Peel was obliged to learn a new role, as leader of an opposition.
