But when he goes to beg for another loan from his harpy for a mother and his ogre of a stepfather, he is thrown into world seemingly gone mad. A new flu strain has been spreading across Africa, Europe, and Asia.

His descriptions of the chaos were fantastic. Perhaps it was because I wanted

It is getting a one star because of a somewhat interesting concept slow burn and the clever title. It made me want to know them through more than just their music. Thank you for bringing these characters to life in a way Book 1 made me feel as if they were my friends.

There's blood in the foyer. Zed actually pairs up with two guys Murphy and Jerco thing that irritated me was that the characters would use each other's name profusely.
