Although I now know that I only let those voices come in when I have fears and so in this I am trying very hard not to let them in - think from the heart for that is love... After that I somewhat forgot about it throughout the rest of the week.

His idea was that in the very early days of humanity we all heard voices when decisions needed to be made especially ones that provoked a feeling of stress and that these voices were experienced as Gods or Elders people who knew what to. Jerry L
