View 2 comments. The last thing he did at night before retiring was to go to the bookshelves and, like a gourmet studying the menu in a good restaurant, carefully select a book to enrich his evening. Overall, this is a tremendously lucid defense of the fundamental Misesian approach to social philosophy.

If the US would put into place the principles which Von Mises enumerates, we would

In the end, I would have preferred a more critical and insightful look at Mises, including some juicy gossip about the more intimate details of their marriage. Even for someone who isn't familiar with Mises' academic and professional work, the story of his meeting Margit, their long courtship, their escape from Austria and flight to America are all worth reading. Mises Institute has published the writing of Mises Academy instructor Stephan Kinsella in opposition to intellectual property.

Charity on the other hand, is condemned as being "undeniably harmful". Glean many insights for my own marriage and a very interesting view into life in the middle 20th century before and after World War II.
