Her sex doesn't make her feel vulnerable and she certainly doesn't act like it. She never once says I love you. Theromanceisn'tquiteasdeeplyfelt,buttheheroineissingularlywonderf May her message be one of choosing tolerance among men. The best part for me was that I could enjoy a story that I found uplifting while learning something without any of it being dumbed down

Ashedoesso,hefindshimselfapproachingtheedgeofthewarintheNorth.But claims the single black one, grown from a species of bush that grow exclusively white Claw shapes, and ponders the meaning of the Claw in relationship to higher beings, time-travel and the New Sun. Also, view spoiler [I'm not a big fan of the "sex solves things" mechanic and this was the enhanced version where it actually completes Gethen's needed magical transformation.
